

Delia Thornton

YEAR OF CALL: 1999

INN: LINCOLNS INN

Practice Overview

Delia is a specialist family law barrister and mediator. She has a particular interest in care proceedings where she represents parents and guardians. Her work load involves Fact-Finding hearings concerning allegations of domestic violence, sexual abuse and non-accidental injury in both private and public law proceedings. Delia is always in demand to represent clients who are considered vulnerable e.g. learning disabled, represented by the official solicitor. She has an interest in cases that involve the Mental Health Act.
