

Rhodri Jones

YEAR OF CALL: 2017

INN: INNER TEMPLE

Practice Overview

Rhodri's practice focusses on clinical negligence, inquests, and personal injury.

Rhodri specialises in clinical negligence, acting for both claimants and defendants. Before retraining as a barrister Rhodri practiced as a medical doctor for 18 years, principally in A&E and general practice. His wealth of knowledge and experience enables him to quickly grasp the relevant issues in all aspects of medical law.

His recent experience includes advising and drafting statements of case in relation to claims in general practice, anaesthetics, cardiology, orthopaedics, ophthalmology, general surgery, and dentistry. Rhodri assisted in the appeal case of David Price v Cwm Taf University Health Board [2019] EWHC 938 (QB). He has a particular interest in claims with complex issues of causation.

Rhodri also has significant experience in inquests representing families and Healthcare Trusts. His experience includes representing the family in a seven-day inquest following a neonatal death. He recently represented a GP following the death of a patient.

His personal injury practice includes advice, applications, and fast-track trials relating to road traffic accidents, employer's liability and occupier's liability.
