

Glen Pritchard

YEAR OF CALL: 2022

INN: Inner Temple

YEAR OF CALL: 2018

Practice overview

Glen has recently joined our Family & Divorce team following a successful career as a Solicitor working for Somerset County Council where he focused on children law. He represented the Local Authority in all manner of ways, including at contested removal hearings and dealing with Deprivation of Liberty applications in the High Court.

Whilst having had conduct of matters and hearings in the Court of Protection, this is an area in which Glen hopes to develop his experience.

Prior to working at Somerset County Council, he spent time working in debt recovery where he developed an ability to empathise with clients, build positive relationships and work collaboratively to reach a positive outcome..

Qualifications & awards:

- ▶ University of the West of England – LLB – 2:1
- ▶ Admitted to the Roll of Solicitors of England and Wales- April 2018
- ▶ Higher Rights of Audience (Civil)- January 2020
- ▶ Called to the Bar – July 2022 (Inner Temple)

Additional information:

Glen was born and grew up in the North West but moved to the South West for University. After this education in law he stayed in the area and gained employment with Somerset County Council's legal team, being granted a training contract in 2016 and qualifying in 2018.
